Again and again they applauded the Tiger. He seemed to feel that it is not likely that he will again during his American visit address an audience so capable of understanding the financial prostration of France which he pictured for them.

Capital Hears "Tiger" Will Be Wilson Guest

From The Tribune Washington Bureau WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. -Rumors that Clemenceau, when n Washington, would be a house guest of Woodrow Wilson stirred official Washington to-day. It is known that the Tiger will visit his former colleague of the "Big Three " of Versailles days, but it had not been suspected until today that he would make the S Street home of the former President his headquarters while here.

From a source usually well informed about the movements of Mr. Wilson, it was learned that the former President may give a dinner in honor of Clemenceau. This would be the first formal affair given by the ex-President since he was stricken while on his stumping tour in behalf of the League of Nations.

While no official comment could be obtained, it was pointed out that the picture now painted by Clemenceau is not so very different, as a matter of fact, from those drawn at the time of the Armament Limitation Conference, by Briand, Viviani and Sarraut. The French degelates determinedly, at the very outset of the conference, said any thought of reducing the land forces of France was unthinkable in view of this menace. According to Treasurer Wilson many of the injured were already at their homes after receiving first aid treatment at the mouth of the mine, their hurts only being of a minor nature. Company physicians worked at top speed in emergency hospitals established on the ground at the mouth of the mine.

A. D. Jones, a miner who was working in the forty-ninth west entry of the mine at the time of the blast, proved a hero. When the explosion occurred, Jones gathered five white miners and fifteen negroes, who were working near him, and started to lead his party toward the mouth of the mine.
